

Webcast Manager: Bulk import of SSO/registration attributes

You can now import large numbers of attendees to your events without having to enter each email address or UUID manually.

You can do this by importing a CSV file containing e-mail addresses or UUIDs directly to Webcast Manager.

For more information about the bulk import, please consult this article.