Improved private events' role assignment and error messages

Role assignment in private Webcasts is now reflected to roles previously granted at the account level.

This means that you can no longer select a role for a user beyond the role granted by the administrator.

For more information, please consult this article.

In addition, some extra error messages were added to the bulk import of the SSO registration attributes.

For more information, please consult this article.