

Webcast Consumer: New languages available

New language settings have been added to Webcast. It is now possible to add translations for Portuguese and Russian language in the Webcast Consumer.

In addition to that Chinese can be configured as a language to provide a Chinese video stream. The text in Consumer will still appear in English when Chinese is configured.

All related language configurations are done in Webcast Manager.