Webcast: New anonymous Q&A feature

If this feature is enabled, audience members can ask questions to the presenter without registration. Similar to the standard Q&A feature, the comments are only visible to the person asking the question and the Webcast operator. However, the operator does not know who asked the question.

More information is available in the Webcast Operator documentation.