Assigning a Global Ad Configuration

To define a global ad configuration that is applied for all videos in your account, perform the following steps:

1. Switch to the account overview by clicking on the appropriate entry in the navigation.

2. In the account overview under "Global Settings", select the desired ad configuration from the drop down menu. This configuration will be played out for all of your videos.