

Webcast Manager: HMAC token authentication available

To ensure that only authorized users can access Webcast events, you can enable the use of HMAC (hash-based message authentication code) tokens for user authentication.

For more information, please consult this article.