

Webcast Manager: Watermark feature now available in Webcast Manager

You can now protect Webcast content with by enabling watermarks containing the user ID of the employee streaming the content in Webcast consumer.

Available for SSO-enabled Webcasts, this dynamic overlay helps prevent unauthorized sharing, ensuring your content is secure and traceable.

More information can be found in this article.